MEDIA RELEASE

REX ANNOUNCES IMPROVED PORT LINCOLN FLIGHT SCHEDULE

Regional Express (Rex) today announced an improved Port Lincoln to Adelaide flight schedule with effect from Monday, 17 July 2017.

The improved schedule will provide customers with the ability to undertake middle of the day travel between Port Lincoln and Adelaide each Monday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday. The additional middle of the day flights will facilitate half day return travel in both directions as well as delivering additional domestic and international connection options. The improved Rex schedule will add around 7,000 seats per year to the Port Lincoln to Adelaide route. (Refer to the Rex flight schedule attached).

General Manager Network Strategy & Sales Warrick Lodge said, "We have listened to our loyal customers and travel agents in implementing these Port Lincoln schedule improvements. The local community has been asking for middle of the day flights and Rex has delivered with effect from 17 July 2017."

"In supporting Rex, the local community is supporting increased flight frequency and improved schedule convenience. We are confident that the Port Lincoln community will get behind Rex so that these middle of the day flights can become a permanent fixture of Rex's flight schedule between Port Lincoln and Adelaide."

Regional Express (Rex) is Australia's largest independent regional airline operating a fleet of more than 50 Saab 340 aircraft on some 1,500 weekly flights to 58 destinations throughout all states in Australia. In addition to the regional airline Regional Express, the Rex Group comprises wholly owned subsidiaries Pel-Air Aviation (air freight and charter operator), Air Link (Dubbo-based regional airline) and the Australian Airline Pilot Academy.
