

Customers vote in Rex as the best

REGIONAL Express (Rex) has been named the best domestic airline for customer satisfaction for the month of July.

The airline scored an 88 per cent satisfaction rating and ranked ahead of Qantas, Jetstar, Virgin Australia and Tiger Airways.

The findings, from surveys conducted by Roy Morgan, come as Rex celebrated 10 years of flying last month.

Rex chief operating officer Garry Filmer said it was a pleasing result.

“This outcome, coming on the back of the Traveller Awards survey in 2011 rating Rex as the best regional airline... confirms Rex as one of Australia’s most reliable and appreciated domestic airlines.”
