CYBER ATTACK ON HWLE LAWYERS COMPROMISING REX'S DATA

Regional Express (Rex) has been informed that its client's lawyers, HWL Ebsworth Lawyers (HWLE), has been a victim of a cyber-attack. The incident resulted in the theft of data relating to confidential exchanges between Rex's subsidiary and its client.

As far as Rex is aware, Rex Airlines is not affected, and no passenger details have been compromised.

Rex is now requesting for evaluation of the documents that have been stolen from HWLE's servers to determine the extent of potential damages to Rex's interests.

Rex has put both HWLE and the client on notice of the potential damage to Rex's interests and has reserved all its rights.

Rex is Australia's largest independent regional and domestic airline operating a fleet of 58 Saab 340 and 8 Boeing 737-800NG aircraft to 57 destinations throughout all states in Australia. In addition to the airline Rex, the Rex Group comprises wholly owned subsidiaries Pel-Air Aviation (air freight, aeromedical and charter operator), the Australian Airline Pilot Academy with campuses in Wagga Wagga and Ballarat, and propeller maintenance organisation, Australian Aerospace Propeller Maintenance. Rex is also a 50% shareholder of National Jet Express (NJE), a premier Fly-In-Fly-Out (FIFO), charter and freight operator.
